I'M WELL INSURED

When the fire bell sounds and the fire companies go racing to a fire, the man who can say "I'm well insured" has a sense of security that the other man who carries his own risks knows nothing about. Good insurance adds to the comfort of your sleep at night, and takes a worry from your day thoughts. I represent the very cream of insurance companies. Let me fix you up a policy that protects.

CULBERSON STIRS SENATE

Texas Senator Caused Stir By Getting Through Resolution Calling For Proof of Statements.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., May 15.—Senator Charles A. Culberson of Texas caused considerable of a stir in the senate today when he worsted Senator Aldrich by getting through a resolution demanding that the finance committee prove its statements that the retailers of the country are responsible for the high priced articles for general consumption instead of the blame resting with the protected manufacturers. Culberson's resolution was strongly backed by Senator Gore of Oklahoma. Aldrich attempted a move to smother the resolution, but Culberson succeeded in getting it scheduled for consideration Monday. Several republican senators supported the Culberson resolution. Senator Culberson, in discussing his resolution, declared that it was up to the finance committee to furnish the proof of its assertion, placing the blame for high prices on the retailers, as a loophole to clear the protected manufacturers.

TAFT IS COMING SOUTH FIGHTING OVER BRYAN

Will Be Present at Unveiling at Petersburg, Va., Next Wednesday. Will Also Go to Charlotte.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., May 15.—President Taft will leave Washington on Tuesday night on his first trip to the south since his inauguration. At Petersburg, Va., Wednesday, he will be present at the unveiling of a fine monument at Fort Mahoe to the Pennsylvania troops who fell in the fights during the famous siege of General Grant. From Petersburg the president will go to Charlotte, N. C., to attend the celebration there of the anniversary of the signing of the Mecklenburg declaration of independence.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the Lake Mohonk Conference of the National Arbitration will assemble at the Adirondacks resort Wednesday and continue in session three days. Prominent among the participants will be Governor Ansel of South Carolina, ex-Governor Montague of Virginia, President Fausch of Brown University, the British, German and Brazilian ambassadors, and the diplomatic representatives of several of the republics of South and Central America. If the conditions are favorable the government tests of aeroplanes and other flying machines will be resumed during the week at Fort Myer. The tests will continue a month or longer and will include demonstrations of the Wright aeroplane, the Berliner type of helicopter flying machine and several other varieties of the so-called heavier-than-air machines.

The taking of testimony on behalf of the defense in the government's suit against the so-called powder trust is scheduled to begin in the United States court at Wilmington, Del., Monday. On the same day the case of H. Clay Pierce, under indictment in Texas on the charge of false swearing in the suit to oust the Waters Pierce Oil company from that state, will be called at Austin, but it is understood that the trial will be postponed until fall.

The election of a new assembly in the republic of Colombia, which is to be held next Thursday, is of some interest to the people of the United States, owing to the efforts of President Reyes and his government to have elected an assembly favorable to the convention recently concluded between Colombia and the United States, which must be ratified by the assembly before it can come into force.

The annual Presbyterian general assemblies will be the important gatherings of the week. The Northern Presbyterians will meet at Denver and the Southern Presbyterians at Savannah, beginning their sessions simultaneously Thursday morning. President Taft and the British ambassador, Mr. Bryce, will be the principal speakers at the national conference on city planning, which will assemble in Washington Friday for a session of two days.
